“ Mom, your memorial service was beautiful, everyone who came loved you very much. Brother Wright reminded us of what a wonderful wife, mother, friend, and servant of Jehovah you were. Although we are terribly sad that you've fallen asleep in death, we know that you are safe in Jehovah's memory, and when you are resurrected, you'll be healthy and young again, able to walk and laugh and your memory will be perfect. This is the hope that is getting me thru my sadness. I love you mom.

“ Dear Holloway Family we are so very sorry for your loss. We loved Barbara very much. I always enjoyed her laugh. She was always thoughtful and loving toward Perry and me and our girls. I still have the scarf she embroidered for me. She will be missed. All our love and prayers to the family.
