“ Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.

Our love and prayers for you.

“ We already have missed Bob here at the Tulsa Health Department since his retirement. So sorry he didn't have more time to enjoy retirement because I know he was sure looking forward to those days. Thanks for everything you did for me here at THD and even though our time spent working together was short you were a great boss and I will never forget you as long as I live. Save me a place on that leather couch in heaven so we can talk later. Rest in Peace.

“ Grandpa I miss you so much. I hate knowing I'll never hug you in this life or hear you laugh or see you smile. I guess this is my way of saying goodbye without any trouble. I'm sorry if I ever hurt you and I never meant to. I wanted to talk to you but get to you. Please forgive me. I love you so much and I hope you are at peace and with aunt Keri. Please Please watch over every one.

“Dad,

I miss you so much already, but know that every day your memories will be with me, making me stronger each day. Who I am today is due to the lessons you taught me throughout all my life, and that will be with me until the end.

Rest in peace with the Lord, my dad. I love you,

Scott

“I will miss you forever, my sweet babycakes. I know you are with me and will do my very best to be both mom & dad to our boys; both G-ma & G-Pa to our grandkids. You still are the very best husband and father in this world. Rest easy and wait for me to arrive.
