“ Cheryl never shied from pain, from early childhood and being abandoned by her becoming a mother and losing her young son to cancer. Cheryl taught me always from as long as I can remember that the failure of others or of herself, did not define who she was. She just got up and found a way to forge ahead. She returned to school to get an advanced degree after having three babies...and made the honor roll. Cheryl laughed easily and found joy in her kids, in fishing with Jim, fingernails with her sister and burning down barns...with me. Give Bo a hug cuz'n...I know your arms have been hungry to hold him. Tell Mom I miss her and am looking forward to a cup of coffee with you and with her....and a bowl of grandma's dumplings!

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Cheryl passing. She was such a good friend to Dad. Sometimes life didnt treat her so well, but she always came thru. That says a lot about a person. I know she will be missed by many.

“ We lost her too soon. There were so many things I needed to say to her and that she needed to hear. I regret that I kept putting it off and now she is out of reach forever. Let this be a lesson for you; tell your loved ones how much you love them and how much they are appreciated now, before it is too late.

“ Where to begin...the most important lessons my mother taught me was to always be honest with yourself as well as others! Also, to never cheat, never lie and most of all the last lesson that I have learned, to never take the simplest things for GRANTED!!! Mom..I miss you so much, you will be in my heart, my thoughts and my prayers! Most of all, I know you will watch over us all! I know you are with others who have missed you for so long and Mom please give everyone a hug for me...most of all tell brother "BO"...he was so right about everything..he knows what I am referring to!...I will miss you terribly...but you did nothing but protect us all and most of all you showed us all love everyday! . THANKYOU FOR ALWAYS LOVING AND BEING THERE MOM..I LOVE AND MISS YOU!!!

“ My mom was the strongest and bravest woman I have ever known. She was not a perfect person, she made her share of mistakes... but she was the best mom I could ever have asked for. I can't believe she is gone from the world... However, she will never be gone from my heart. I know she will watch over me, and that is the most comforting thought.
