“ Debbie was a friend and a member of our small group which met in my home. She was a very forthright person who spoke the truth as she saw it. She was generous in giving to her church , to friends, and of course to Annie and Lily. She was dependable to let me know if she was unable to attend the group, no excuses just that she would not be there. I appreciated that side of her. A while back I had the opportunity to be alone with her and she spoke of her life and how she came to know the Lord. It was an amazing story of strength and how she longed for the love of Christ. I will miss her.
