“ You always told me, everytime you seen me, how precious I was to you, then you would take a deep breath to stop yourself from crying and smile. I would always reply with... "You are precious to me too, Ed" then I would give him a hug and he would say... "Awe, shoe-buckle!" and smile again. I only wish I could go back to that time and stop the clock the last time you said that, 2 days before you went to the hospital and fix everything. Instead, I changed the band aid on your elbow and put Neosporin on it, gauze and taped it back...told you I love you, gave each other a hug and you kissed me on the cheek, got on your motorcycle with the treats for Missy, smiled and said again how precious me and Harley was to you and said... "You all are my family, I love ya, come over anytime!" Then in ICU, when I kissed your forehead and pushed back your hair, your neighbor Kathy held your hand, as Harley stood by the end of your bed; we all cried as you left us to go be with Jesus, without any pain. Please put in a good word for all of us here and tell the ones already there, to keep thumping us on the head when we need it. We love ya Cuz'n Ed, and your Lab, Missy too, always!

“ My prayers go out to Eddy's family. I knew Eddy since he was 12 years old. I remember his first car. We went cruising in Riverside back when you could still do that. He was always kind to me. He will be missed.
