“ May God bless you all in this time of great sorrow----may you find peace and some joy in knowing Uncle Herman is now home, where there is no suffering or pain, only joy for him, joining his mother, father and others in his family who have passed on before him. And where he waits for his beloved wife and sons to join him one day....

“ Dear Jaunita, Martin Ray, Wayne and family.

So sorry to hear of Herman passing. What a terrible loss. I know you had many wonderful years together. Only time will heal the blank spot in your life.

Sorry, Bethel and I will be unable to attend the funeral in Lubbock because of Bethel's health at this time. Our thoughts and prayers are that God will give you strength and comfort during this time.

We love you and our thoughts and prayers are there in spirit.

Your cousins,

Burl and Bethel
