“ Grandma, I truly don't know what I'm gonna do without you. You have always been there for us no matter what the situation was. You were the kindest, funniest Grandma in the world.. Although I'm gonna miss you more than words can say, I take comfort knowing you have my babies in your arms singing to them. I never wanted you to leave us but it does make me smile to know they are there with you now and you'll take care of them until I get there. I love you so much Grandma words can't express all the feelings I have right now. Just know how much each and everyone of us loved you.. Goodbye for now, I'll see you again soon.. Tell my boys I love them...

“ Grandma, you will never know how much you are gonna be missed. While we all know you are in Heaven looking over us, there is a void in the hearts of those left behind. We love you and will miss you everyday of our lives.

“ My deepest and sweetest sympathy to all of your family. I wish I had had an opportunity to meet such a wonderful woman but I know and take comfort in the fact that she is up there holding mine and Chris' baby. It is no secret how much she was truly loved. I will be praying for the entire family and I hope that peace will find every heart that is aching right now.

- All my love.

“ i'm so happy that I was able to re-connect with you last December in Oklahoma, and again in May of this year in Kentucky and WVA. You and Uncle Andy were so good to me when I was growing up. You will always be precious to me, and I will miss you! Much love from your nephew, Richard.
