“ Even though John was with the City for such a short time, he accomplished so much. I had told him several times that I appreciated the things he was doing and the cohesion that he had brought to the "City Family". I know that I learned a lot from him and very thankful that our path got to cross. I know his family will miss him for some time, but just as real, I know that his "City Family" will miss just as much. He came to the City at a time when real leadership was needed and he provided that and much more. I think as a City Councilor, we need to keep John's legacy alive and moving forward, which would be to take Glenpool to the next level and beyond. He would want nothing less, than to see "his City" grow to be the premier place to live in Tulsa County and the State of Oklahoma. We owe that vision and the great foundation, that he laid for us to John M. Rogers. Thanks John, for getting us headed in the right direction.

“ I am so appreciative of my friendship with John. When I ponder Webb City before and after John Rogers, I realize he always brought his God given gifts of Leadership and Vision coupled with determination and hard work, and made the town a better place for all who live and work there. I used to own a car dealership on Main Street in WC and he was always prodding me on to grow and improve my business for the benefit of "My City". He always spoke of WC as "His" city. I think some may have interpreted this as arrogance, but knowing John as a friend, I know his heart was that he was connected almost in a spiritual sense with the people he served as City Manager. He was a "git r dun" kind of guy! Webb City was well served by this talented individual and his accomplishments will live on to the benefit and enjoyment of the citizens of Webb City for generations to come. I had the occasion to talk with John about spiritual matters on several occasions and I am confident he is now in the company of the redeemed. May God's Grace comfort all who mourn at his passing and miss his wonderful spirit today. With Love and Best Regards, Van Benson

“ Farewell John. My memories of you will always be with me. You brought new life and hope to our City and in the short time we had your leadership much was accomplished. You were my friend and mentor. Life on the City Council will never be the same without your presence. Thank you for your guidance and your devotion to our City. Watch over us from above and continue your vigilance. You will never be forgotten by me. Rest in peace.
