“ It has been many years since I have seen Karen, but as she grew up with my daughters, I have many pleasant memories of her as a teenager and young adult. I am so sorry to hear of her death. I too lost my daughter recently to cancer, so I can relate to your pain. For me, the confidence that I will see my daughter again, in the resurrection promised and guaranteed by Jesus Christ with his own life, gives me strength through an assured hope for that future.
