“ I miss you so much. I can't believe its been almost a year. I can feel you here with me and I know you're watching over me. I was looking at my old Facebook and found our VERY first conversation. It's so funny. You were so sweet and caring to me from day one. I wish you were here because I really need you to tell me everything will be okay and you'll make it better again. You ALWAYS knew what to say, no matter what I was going through. I love you, baby boy.

“ My son, Taylor played baseball with Kevin on the Oklahoma Travelers. I remember how dedicated he was to baseball and the team. You could tell that he really loved the game. All the boys really liked him and he was always smiling. Angie, my prayers are with you and your family and with Kevin. We will miss him.

“ My condolences to Kevin's family. I got the brief opportunity to help coach Kevin in baseball a couple of years ago with the Oklahoma Travelers. He was a very talented player and a lot of fun to be with. The boys all admired his ability and liked him very much. I didn't hear of his passing until today (March 28th) and am very much saddened. You are all in my prayers.

*Sometimes I sense a little flutter.
Like a shadow swiftly slipping by.
Or I hear a silent, gentle murmur.
Like a soft whisper from out the sky.*

*Sometimes... I hear you call my name,
Or clearly see your face before me.
And I feel that you are with me still.
Then peacefully... I come to know*

*As I am thinking happy thoughts of you
You, my son, are thinking of me too.
Loving memories fill my aching heart.
As dreaming dreams of what could be.*

*Or might have been, if you were here.
Until the piercing pain of losing you
Comes tumbling down on trembling fear.
And clearly once again I hear you say,*

*"But Mom? What if I had never been.
You could not then in LOVE remember me."*

Angie, you are such a sweet lady and I feel your pain. We lost my nephew tragically and I felt my sister's pain to loose her baby. We miss your beautiful smile. The pics I uploaded were special times! The "dynamic duo" Kevin and Nathan! They were so awesome, right? I loved those times. This is the memory I will cherish of Kevin forever, spunky, kind-hearted, and he loooved his baseball! This was the last time I saw him. Always remember you have a special angel watching over you and Erin! We miss you dearly!

“ Kevin babysat Camden for me one evening and before I left we sat on the couch and talked, he was so witty and very funny. It was obvious that he loved his mom and sister more than words can describe. He told me several stories that evening...one my son remembers about his x-box. Kevin told me he wasn't supposed to stay up all night playing his x-box, Angie would tell him to turn it off after a certain time so he would silence it so his mom wouldn't know that he was playing it. The x-box got so hot it melted and he had to fix it up and paint it so his mom didn't know. Camden thought that was funny. Kevin was so kind and patient with Camden, playing UNO and talking about xbox games. You will forever be missed, we love you Kevin:)

“ You are missed by EVERYONE Kevin Collins. Our French class is SO blessed that you came into our lives. And we know you'll still always be with us in French. I loved how you always knew what Mrs. Brown was saying, and you always shouted out the answers. You were so funny, and you made me laugh every day. Hope you're having a blast in heaven, can't wait to see you again!

“ I want you to know how special Kevin was to our French class at Jenks. We loved saying his name "Kevin Collins" it had a nice ring. We always addressed him with his whole name b/c we loved it. Kevin's quick wit was something one of the girls told me that she liked about him. Friday at school we were celebrating Mardi Gras a bit late and Kevin told me about getting to visit New Orleans...not during Mardi Gras, but still what a fun town it was. He was laughing and we were throwing beads to students that knew the answers to culture questions. It was a great time. I will cherish it forever. I wish I could have seen something or helped in some way so we could still have him now. He will be greatly missed.
