“ At Westside this morning, as we were singing the hymn, "Near to the Heart of God", the last part of the refrain brought you both to my mind: "Hold us who wait before Thee, near to the heart of God." May our God hold you, sustain you and give you peace, in time, as you wait here. Terry and I send our heart felt sympathy to you all.

“ *Charles and April,
Gwen and I are there in spirit. Please know that you are loved, and that we greatly wanted to be there to support you during this tragic time. At this time, we know that everything is in a blur and that words seem like idle cliches, but there is nothing idle about how our hearts are breaking with your hearts. We weep with you, we pray for you, and we sorrow for you. May God grant you comfort in the knowledge that He has prepared a place for Logan; if it were not so, He would have told you. As Logan experiences the joys of heaven, we unfortunately must experience the sorrows of earth because we are separated from him. May your burdens be lifted because friends and family share them with you. Love, Jim and Gwen* “ Words seem so inadequate at expressing our sympathies for your profound loss. May God comfort you. May you find peace in the love that surrounds you.

"I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love." Leo Buscaglia

“ April and Charles, my heart truly aches for you. I know that Logan is in a place away from sin and all the corrupt things that come with our earthly home. I also know that nothing right now will make you feel better but please know that he spent Christmas in God's house and how awesome would that be? Our faith sometimes is the only thing that can get us through these moments. Please, if you need to talk about anything Allen and I have been in your shoes and we want to help you honey! We love you dearly. - Allen & Shelby Coats
