“Beth, At County Line Christian Church it was announced that your husband had passed away by Dwight Krantz. I was shocked as we did not know he had been sick. Today I saw the obituary in the Danville paper. I did not have your address to send you a card so I just wanted to share my love and deepest sympathy with you and your family. You were such a sweet nice person when you were at Gretna and I just remember how precious I thought you were. Your Mom and I have been friends since high school days at Callands. I loved your Granny Adkins also. She was a sweetheart. I am so sorry about your husband, Malcolm and I pray that God will truly bless and comfort you and your family during this time of sorrow. May God, your family, and your friends help fill the void that has been left in your life. Our love and our prayers are with you. With Love, Margaret Shelton

“ Beloved Beth, as Malcolms journey in life is concluded with a homecoming with Jesus, our work which is continually revealed daily by the Father each moment at a time as HE plans our future still goes on. Malcolm had an loving impact upon many people. He consistently revealed life was too short to complain and if you didn't learn a new trick to answer a new challenge, then life would become boring. We must show the world the victory over death in life as we live life to its fullest in Christ Jesus. Malcolm was consistent in this regard. May GOD's richest and best be for you and yours, love in Christ Jesus.

“ Beth, My deepest condolences to you on your loss of Malcolm. I know how hard it is to lose the person you have shared your life with for many years. I will always remember you and Malcolm and your gift of friendship to George and I and the many trips to Fuddruckers. To be able to make dear friends at Cancer Treatment Center like you and Malcolm, Kim, Farris and Freda, was such a blessing.....just like the commercials say "It's just like coming back home." Please keep in touch. May God Bless you going forward now and forever. You are in my thoughts and prayers. With Deepest Sympathy and Love, Becky Vascellaro

“ Beth,

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Rest assured that Malcolm is at peace and although it is so hard to imagine, it is what God had planned for him. He is finally at peace. I wish I could be closer to you to help you through this devastating time. Hopefully you have numerous people around you giving you lots of support and love. Love Julie
