“ Mike, I still miss you every single day, but I know you are around us all the time watching over us. Cuz'n Ed would come over and keep you company while you were here, now he will keep you and our family and friends, company up there. Every time I see your white butterfly, I know you are around. I still love you with all my heart! Harley is looking more like you everyday! Steven swears you gave him fur, because nobody else in the family has that much except you. Keep watching over Harley and all of us. My love always and forever... "I Swear."

“ Michael, if you are up there watching, or by our side with us, I know where ever you are, you can see what is happening and how our lives has changed without your precious life here with us. We ALL still miss you and your precious touch, so much and we talk and think of you constantly. Your son is growing up so fast and you would be so proud of the young man he is turning into and looks just like you and too smart! Just keep watching over us and guiding us. Our love for you will never stop. My soul-mate forever.

“ Mike and I came from very different backgrounds but he I will always consider him my brother. I have three other brothers but he was more brother to me. My first impreasson of Mike was at that time was GREAT a fourty year old hippy, but he tought me to relax and not take every thing so seriously and. the one thing that I can say in remembering Mike is GOOD FRIENDS ARE HARD TO FIND BUT THERE EVEN HARDER TO LOSE. Linda&harley you will always be in my hart even if I lose track of time Im still thinking about the both of you. LOVE RANDY&PAULINE&family

“ Michael was and still is the man of my dreams and the greatest friend anyone could ever ask for or have. My soulmate! A wonderful and loving husband and father, that gave me a beautiful and precious son, Harley. He loved and treated my children and family as his own and always had time to listen and help anyone. Michael had a lot of setbacks, trying to heal but always endured and overcame them. We always prayed together, every night, without fail and watched "In Touch" together on Sunday mornings as our church service, then westerns. Everyday has an emptiness that tears can't heal, but our Angel was needed in heaven and I'm so thankful for our time together while he was here. Our love will always be with him and his love and smiles will always be with us.
