“ Rick, I really enjoyed living next door from you. I miss your tomato plant. A few of us in the apartment complex have a tomato plant growing in the court yard in memory of you. The plants name is "RICK". We know that there is going to be wonderful tasting tomato's because you are watching over it. See you in HEAVEN

“ There are a few lines from the poem "I am a Christian" by Maya Angelou that we want to share. It reminds us of the changes that Rick made in his life and his walk with God the past five years.

*When i say "i am a christian" I'm not shouting "I'm clean livin
I'm whispering I was lost, now I'm found and forgiven.*

*When i say "I am a christian" I don't speak of this with pride.
I'm confessing that i stumble and need Christ to be my guide.*

*When I say "I am a christian" I'm not claiming to be perfect,
My flaws are far too visible but, God believes i am worth it.*

*When i say "I am a christian" I'm not holier than thou,
I'm just a simple sinner who received God's good grace, somehow.*

*We love you Rick,
Larry and Yhulonda*
