“ To the family of Roy Betts, How very sorry I am to hear of your loss of your son, brother, Uncle. I lived in Calumet Park right on Bishop Street, down the block from you. Roy was in alot of my classes at school, going from kindergarten on up. We grew up together riding our bikes, hanging out. When I think of your Roy, the memories come flooding back in my mind of those great summer days. I wish you all well and when you think of your Roy, he will leave you with a smile on your heart. Thank you for being a part of my life growing up, and we will meet and chat in heaven. Love, Dawnie Hillegonds

“ To the family & friends of Roy. Cripple Creek Band enjoyed 13 years of his wonderful talents. In those years he played on the stages & we opened the shows for many stars. George Jones, Marshall Tucker Band, Clint Black, Tracy Byrd, Mark Chestnut, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Riders in the Sky & more. Roy was as good as any of their musicians & held his own with the best of'em. There is noway to count the thousands of people he entertained with Cripple Creek alone. From hard rock to bluegrass we did it all. He was loved & appreciated more than he would ever let himself believe. The Oklahoma music scene lost a good hand.
