“ I feel so sad for your family. Even though I know she is in Heaven, and you will see her again this must be a very tough time for you to lose someone so young. I hope faith in Christ can bring you through this sad time.

“ Shelle was a counselor at my treatment center. She was so special and I knew that from the time I met her. She had a light in her eyes and a radiant aura about her. She had a directly affected my life in a positive way. I can't imagine just how many people she has helped. What a privelege it was to know her for the short time I did. My heart aches in her absence. She talked about her beautiful daughter and loving husband all the time. I am so sorry for your loss. My heart aches for you. I love you and miss you Miss Shelle.

“ Shelle was my counsellor. She was a beautiful person and she definately touched my heart. She was always so happy and positive and really knew how to make you feel better when you were down and out. I enjoyed the time that I got to share with her and she will always have a special place in my heart.

“ Shelley and I had mutual friends growing up. She has always been a sweet and kind person to me. We reconnected on Facebook just recently. She has prayed with me and helped me through some of the toughest things in my life. She had an incredible faith and love!! Her husband, her daughter Hannah and her pups were her life and she was so proud of her family. She brighten so many lives. God has a true angel next to him in Heaven. You was a true christian. It will be difficult transition for your husband and Hannah. My prayers and thoughts are with them.

“ Mark and Hannah I pray the Lord will cradle you in his arms and give you the strength to meet each day without your precious wife and mother. I was blessed to spend only a short time with Shelle, but I loved her quick wit, laughter and genuine love of all she met. Her mission on earth was to help those who had traveled down a wrong path. She was very sincere in her efforts to guide them each step with compassion and understanding. Hold tight to your memories, she will always be with each of us in spirit.

“ I first met Shelle around the year 2000 when I became the Chaplain at David L. Moss Criminal Justice Center and Shelle was a Counselor and we reconnected in November when I began working at the Keetoowah-Cherokee Treatment Services. When we reconnected, it was as if we had never been apart. We loved our long conversations about the end times and God. Shelle kept telling me she was confident that the Lord was going to return to take us home in 2012 and as we all know, the Lord did take her home now in 2012. I think she must have known or sensed more than I perceived. On January 4th the angels took her by the hand and led her into her eternal promised land. I can almost hear the sound of her contagious energetic laughter and see her beautiful smile. I am going to miss her. Shelle, may you rest in eternal peace. I love you, my sister and friend.

Mark and Hannah, you were the light of her life. She loved both of you with all her heart. I pray the comfort of the Holy Spirit, in this time of loss, will help you through the days and nights ahead. Her memory is forever etched upon your heart. When you miss her, its okay to shed tears because they are just the evidence of the depth of your love and how you miss her. However, always remember Shelle's laughter. It was real and contagious and if she had intentionally chosen something to leave behind, I believe it would be a smile, laughter and love. So, Mark and Hanna, love each other and in the days ahead, the smiles and laughter will return as you cherish Shelle's memory.

“ I'm not sure how to start this, I just want to thank you for being the woman to help save my brother Jerred and bring him closer to God. You mean the world to more people than I could imagine, but I know for a fact that you are responsible for where Jerreds is at. Your sister Kathy is the nicest, most caring person, and I know you are just the same. I wish I could've gotten to know you better, but I will have to wait till I meet you up Above. Please keep Scott, Kathy, Casey, and Jerreds strong through these times. God Bless

“ Shelle, I've cried tears that we've lost you here with us but I've also smiled in my heart knowing you're in the most beautiful peaceful place with many friends and family members who have waited for your arrival. As I get older, I continue to get more 'guardian' angels watching over from above. You were both an angel here on earth and now in heaven. You are an inspiration that there are still so many good people here on earth helping anyone who needs direction find their way. Thank you for always providing comfort when I was in pain, your prayers given without my asking and for being a wonderful friend to us all. May God bless your family thru this time and give them the strength you carried inside yourself. Love you Shelle.....Kathy

“ Shelle, you were the BEST sister anyone could of ever had. I still cannot imagine what my life, all our lives, will be like now without you in it. I love you more than mere words can say. As you put it many, many times to me..."I love you more than I love my luggage!" But, I know that this separation is only a mere minute in God's plan. You are in paradise now....save me a seat....I'll see you soon! All my love forever and always. Kathy “ Shelle and I were former classmates who reconnected in the past year. She was an awesome young lady. Her love for her family and friends reflected in her words. I am thankful for the many blessings she bestowed upon me through her inspirational words and advice. I loved her and will miss her very much. My heart goes out to her family. Especially her mom, Mark, and Hannah. My wish is that they remember and treasure every moment they shared with her. I pray that God enfolds her family and friends and gives them the peace and comfort they need. God bless you all.

“ Shelle and I were good friends in elementary and middle school. I am very thankful we were able to reconnect online. She was a remarkable one of a kind lady, always giving and helping others, even when she herself may have been feeling pain. I want to offer my most sincere condolences and sympathies to all of the family. I know she will be missed by many people and touched so many lives. Even though we are hurting because she's no longer with us, I'm happy to know that she's dancing with her new knees with Jesus and her daddy. You are all in my prayers during this difficult time.
